BETTER-A-DAY CLUB ORGANIZED

CULTY AND STUDENTS PRESENT PLAN

Each Member of Club to Write Letters to Voters Asking Aid

Letter-a-Day club was organized at the first student convocation of the year held Tuesday morning. Faculty members and students spoke of the early years of the University and its future. Financial measures 18 and 19 were explained and plans for student aid in the campaign were made.

The students are organized under thirty chairmen into a Letter-a-Day club. Each member of the club will write one letter a day to voters in the state asking their support of the bond issue and millage tax. They will mail their letters through the county chairman, who will give the check to the central committee.

Keeley had the first five minutes of the convocation when he led students in yells. George Shepard, president of the A. S. U. M., presented the idea of the Letter-a-Day club and explained it. Dean C. W. Leaphart of law school explained measures 18 and 19 and their importance to the students of Montana. Professor F. C. Scheuch, member of the original faculty described the first years of the University and development. Ann B. Wilson, vice president of the A. S. U. M., described the University as it will be in the future when the measures are carried. Charles Bernt, chairman of the central committee, explained the purpose of the Letter-a-Day club and the work expected of each member.

TITLE '15 ILLUSTRATES POPULAR MAGAZINE

When Nat Little, '15, was in the University his highest ambition was to be an illustrator. His name is attached to drawings accompanying "They Landed at First, Says Provincetown," by Jesse Anderson in the October Ladies' Home Journal.

Little studied art at Montana for three years under Miss Eloise Knowles and one year under Professor F. C. Swalm. He edited the 1914 Sentinel. He was on the football squad one year. He is a member of Sigma Chi fraternity. Upon leaving the University Little went to Philadelphia where he studied at the Philadelphia Art Institute. He enlisted in a Tank Corps and served in France as a sergeant. At the close of the war he attended an art school in France. This was the last that he was heard from him by his friends here until his illustrations appeared in the Ladies' Home Journal.

C. S. A. ELECTS OFFICERS.

The Catholic Students' association had a meeting in the rectory immediately after 9:15 mass at the Catholic church Sunday morning and elected officers for the coming year. William Walterskirchen was elected president; Winnifred Meeks, vice president; Harold Fitzgerald, secretary, and Charles Spiller, treasurer. The Reverend Father Edward Brown gave a short talk in which he said it was the desire of the association to promote the spirit of good will and helpfulness among members of the Catholic faith.

MISS WHITCOMB GIVES TEA.

Miss Emmeline S. Whitcomb entertained at tea Sunday in the home economics dining room for the new women of the faculty. Miss Inez Borworth, Miss Mary Bee, Miss Virginia Weaver, Mrs. Louis G. Arnoldson and Miss Marjorie Tuttle.

MISS J. SWENSON BACK AFTER YEAR'S LEAVE

Spent Winter Studying Piano With Edwin Hughes in New York.

Miss Josephine Swenson, professor of piano at the school of music, has resumed her duties at the University after a year's leave of absence. She spent the winter months in New York city studying with Mr. Edwin Hughes, the well-known pianist and teacher, who was associated for several years with Leschetizky of Vienna, the greatest of the modern piano instructors.

Miss Swenson is enthusiastic over the unusually fine quality of music which she had the opportunity to hear in the city. Among the pianists whom she heard are Josef Hofman, Rachmaninoff, Harald Bauer and Mischa Levitzki, the young poet-pianist who has won his way to the highest place in his art. One of the finest concerts of the season was the Musical Festival of New York, given by a chorus of 1,500 voices, comprising the New York Oratorio society, of a chorus from the People's Choral union, the New York Singers' club, and the New York Symphony orchestra, as well as many soloists, both in voice and piano.

The concert halls were crowded daily with appreciative music-lovers from all over the country. Miss Swenson says that she can well believe the statement of good authorities that the music center of the future will be America.

JAMES MURPHY CHOSEN SOPHOMORE PRESIDENT

James Murphy was elected president of the sophomore class; Mary McCarty, vice president; Dorothy Dixon, secretary, and Tom MacGowan, treasurer, yesterday afternoon.

A committee will be appointed to collect an assessment of one dollar to be paid to the treasurer at once as the class dues for the year. Another committee was appointed to issue the proclamation to the freshmen and plans are being made to give a dance as soon as possible in order to pay debts contracted last year.

NEW PLAN SUBSTITUTED FOR OLD GYM LOCKERS

Owing to lack of funds with which to buy steel lockers for both men and women's classes in gymnasium, the "basket system" on a modified scale will be used by the girls this year. Ruth Cavin and Olive Dobson, physical education majors, will be behind the counter to give out and receive the baskets containing the clothes.

All possibility of theft will be removed by this system, as no one can get clothes belonging to anyone else even if she knows the number of the basket. Numbers corresponding to gym numbers will be on the baskets, thus making it impossible for anyone to get more than one basket.

Miss Leyda is very optimistic about the success of the plan, as it has worked out well in many larger Universities.

NEW HISTORY INSTRUCTOR

Dr. Glenn V. Burroughs Takes Place of J. E. Miller in the Department.

Dr. Glenn V. Burroughs, formerly instructor of European history at Ohio State University, has taken the place of J. E. Miller, assistant professor of history and political science at the University of Montana.

Dr. Burroughs is a Whitman College graduate and has taken a Ph. D. degree at the University of Chicago. He will have charge of classes scheduled for Dr. Miller.

REGISTRATION FIGURES CLIMB TO NEARLY 850

Women Still Outnumber the Men by 6; Old Students Lead New With 23.

Eight hundred and forty-eight students had registered Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock. This is the largest registration the University of Montana has ever had.

Of the 848, 421 are men and 427 are women. The old students outnumber the new students by 23, there being 371 new students and 394 former students. There are 67 special students, and 16 music specials.

VARSITY FOOTBALL OUTCOME SLUMPS

FIGHT IS LACKING SAYS BIERMAN

Training Tables Installed in Simpkins Hall for Players

Coach "Bernie" Bierman is not over optimistic in regard to the successful outcome of the scheduled games to be played by the Varsity and stated that "unless the men show more aggressiveness and fight the former bright outlook for a successful football season is going to fade."

"True," Coach Bierman said, "there have been some minor injuries which have been discouraging, but, with the possible exception of Keeley, all the men who have been working regularly will be in condition to play in the scheduled games."

Training tables have been installed at Simpkins' hall and food is served to the football men under the supervision of Coach Bierman.

The team has been given work against the second string men and the Freshman squad and in some cases have not shown to the best advantage their ability to play the offensive and defensive football expected of them by the coach.

The backfield has been materially weakened by the temporary loss of Harry Adams and Pat Keeley through injuries received in scrimmage. Both Adams and Keeley have been doing consistent work in the quarterback position. Gilbert Porter has been directing the team from quarterback the last few days. Higbee, a good bet for a halfback position, is now out on account of an infected leg, but should be back in a suit within the next few days. Harold Baird has been doing the work of a right halfback with Sullivan at the left half and Kershner at fullback. Olson has been declared ineligible, which, perhaps, is the greatest loss the squad has sustained.

The line has not suffered as much as the backfield. Captain "Swede" Dahlberg and Tom MacGowan are going good in the tackle positions, while Elliott, Freeman, Walterskirchen, Dorsey, Harris, Ramsay and Parmelee are taking care of the territory between. Daylis and Morris are best bets for the end positions. Fitzgerald played an end position until he had to be taken out on account of injuries.

Two men, Lambert and Madsen, were expected to report for practice but have not yet called for their suits. K. McKoin reported for practice Monday, and after going through the hardening process will be able to take care of a line position.

Saturday, October 9, the Grizzlies will play the Mt. St. Charles team, in the first game of the season for the Bruins. Coach Bierman expects to use all the eligible men in the game in order to determine, as near as possible, the likely candidates for the trip to Seattle where the Bruins play the biggest game of their schedule, the University of Washington, on October 16.

CADET INSTRUCTOR HAS BRILLIANT WAR RECORD

Sergeant Padgett Is World War Veteran and Possessor of Decorations.

First Sergeant James L. Padgett, possessor of the Croix de Guerre, the American Distinguished Service Cross, and a brilliant war record, has been detailed to service as assistant to Major Cron, instructor in military science and tactics. He has been on the campus since August 29.

Sergeant Padgett has an enviable record as a veteran of the World War. He went to France with the first American troops in June, 1917, as a member of the famous First division. The sergeant participated in all of the important engagements of that organization. At the battle of Cantigny he was gassed; at Soissons he was wounded by machine-gun fire, and in the Meuse-Argonne offensive he was wounded by shrapnel fragments, one of which he still carries. He also participated in the St. Mihiel offensive.

Sergeant Padgett is a native of Montana, his home being Polson.

First S. O. S. Rally For Football Game

Singing on the steps will be held for the first time this year on Thursday evening, according to yell king, Pat Keeley.

This first Singing on the Steps will be a rally before the Mt. St. Charles game to be played Saturday and an opportunity for Freshman to learn Montana songs and yells.

There will be the customary short talks by President Sisson, Coach Schriber, and George Shepard will speak, according to Pat Keeley.

VOCATIONAL STUDENTS HAVE SPECIAL COURSES

Classes in English and Mathematics Suited to Needs of Men Are Offered

Special classes in two subjects are to be offered for vocational men without college entrance requirements in English and mathematics. "It is particularly fortunate," said Mr. Cox, advisor for this group, "that Dr. Lennes himself will conduct the classes in mathematics. But also it is the sentiment of the University that the men who have suffered great losses in the late war richly deserve the utmost that the University can give."

"Dr. Lennes will begin with the men where he finds them," continued Mr. Cox, "and lead gradually up to such knowledge of mathematics as is required in surveying." The course is especially correlated with forestry.

The work in English, carefully suited to the preparation and needs of the men taking it, will be conducted by George Witter, a Senior in the school of law.

There are at present 37 vocational men enrolled with Mr. Cox.

LIBRARY IS REARRANGED.

The seating capacity of the library has been increased by 25, according to Lucia Haley, acting librarian.

Be a rearrangement of the tables and the addition of 25 new chairs, 75 students may now use the library. However, Miss Haley says that the seating capacity is not yet adequate to accommodate 850 students registered.

MASQUERS TO GIVE SERIES OF PLAYS

MR. A. DEAN WILL DIRECT THE PRODUCTIONS.

Seven Keys to Baldpate One of First to Be Put on by Club.

Six major performances, one of which will tour the state, and a series of plays to be produced before invited audiences, have been planned by the Masquers club for the coming school year. They will be directed by Mr. A. Dean, who has had experience on Broadway and has directed dramatics at Dartmouth.

Arrangements are being made to produce "Seven Keys to Baldpate," the popular success by George M. Cohan.

Tryouts for the different parts will be held immediately and the play will be produced in about four weeks at the Liberty theater, according to James Farmer, president of the Masquers club. The club is making arrangements with Miss Nance O'Neil, the actress, to produce a play by the Spanish dramatist, Benaventi. The play ran a year in New York and is now playing in Chicago. It will be staged here before Christmas.

During the winter a series of The Dramatiques will be given on Saturday afternoons to invited audiences in the University auditorium. The plays will be under the management of the class in play production. Tea will be served by the Masquers club.

The major performances of the winter will be a play and a musical comedy. The play will be by an English playwright. Mr. Dean would like to see persons interested in collaborating in writing a book for a musical comedy. Correspondence is being carried on to produce a play being given on Broadway now during the spring quarter. Another play will probably be produced then. Plans are being made to have one of the plays tour the state.

"Nothing like this has ever been tried by the Masquers club," said Mr. Farmer. "Before this we have contented ourselves with producing old plays. This year will be a distinct step in the progress of dramatics at Montana and will place the University on a level, dramatically, with the larger colleges."

FRESHMAN GIRLS ARE ASSIGNED BIG SISTERS

Women's Self-Government League Follows Old University Custom

The following list has been prepared by the Women's Self Government association providing "big sisters" for the new girls who are to see that the new girls assigned to them goes to the co-ed prom and all informal University mixers. This is a University custom. Any freshman girl not having an address listed is requested by Helen Little, president of the W. S. G. A., to file her name in the office of the dean of women.

A. S. U. M. STORE SALES ARE $2,700 FIRST WEEK

Sales at the A. S. U. M. store since the opening of the fall quarter total $2,700. Books, note paper, pens and other supplies have sold most rapidly, as yet, according to Mac Gault, manager of the student store.

A new line of Montana seal rings, pins and stationery has been put in and as soon as the students have been supplied with their books and paper, novelty sales are expected to show an increase. Candy has not been selling so fast as formerly. But the number of soft drinks sold accounts for this decrease.

ON YOUR MARK

However optimistic we may be about the numbers of Montana voters who have heard about the State University of Montana and its long period of crippled growth due to the insufficient funds allowed it, it is up to every student who claims to be a student of Montana, possessor of the pep traditional to this institution, to pledge himself unreservedly to the services of the University.

It has been this spirit in the past that has made Montana known as a University, it has been this very spirit that gave Montana students their right to think of the pep of the good old days as our alumni do, it is this spirit, too, that has made Montana known for its college spirit, and it is the only spirit that will ever see Montana great. Exercise of this spirit is not only attendance at Singing on the Steps, rallying for our football team, victorious or defeated, attendance, and regular attendance at convocation, but it is responding, and responding faithfully to every activity your University requires. No Montana student yet with that spirit has ever failed the University.

According to the report of the football team for this issue of The Kaimin, the coaches are anything but optimistic about the success of the season. Certainly the Montana squad has practiced hard on the field several hours a day since September 15, and now, a few days before our first game, reports like this come in. It is not the fault of our men.

We like to hear reports such as we do hear most of the time, we like to hear that they are out practicing hard every day, and are going to beat Washington, we like to think of them as the champion team, but we do not think of the hard work every football man goes through in trying to make the Varsity team. We do not go out to the bleachers even a few minutes a day to let them know that we appreciate what they are doing. We think sometimes that they are too busy to know whether we are there or not, and that it doesn't matter, but talk to any one of the players, and he will tell you that they see and appreciate. As it is a very few students go out there. We like to think of ourselves as loyal Montana students, but how many of us are loyal? How many of us do this one little thing for the team?

The College Chap is Full of Pep;
and He Demands "Peppy" Clothes

We have always catered to the desires of the college man in the past but this season we have made preparations on a greater scale than ever. Here the "U" student will find snappy up-to-the-minute clothes that are full of character at prices to suit all purses. It has been said that clothes do not make the man, but nevertheless they have a great deal to do with the forming of a strong character. Dr. Dearborn, a noted psychologist, makes the statement that clothes are directly responsible for the mental poise of a man. Good clothes give one confidence and assurance. We have those clothes.

AND ORGANIZED; PRACTICE BEGINS

At a meeting of musicians held yesterday afternoon, the University band was organized and practice immediately started. The band will number 22 pieces this year, according to statements of members. Several of the old men are returning for practice, and much new material has come into the University with the coming of the new Freshman class.

Roscoe Jackman, who conducted the organization last year, is expected to return to school soon and will resume leadership upon his arrival here. The only drawback to the complete success of the band, the members say, is lack of sufficient funds. Plans are being made to conduct some sort of a drive for support and finances, and will be announced later. The band will play football games and other athletic contests, as in former years.

UNIVERSITY TELEPHONE OPERATOR BUSY WOMAN

Exchange In Operation From
8:30 to 6 o'Clock
Every Day

Mrs. Grace Schwaeble, chief telephone operator at the University, is one of the busiest people on the campus. Her duties have been added to since last year and a great deal of business is conducted at the little booth on the first floor of University hall.

The exchange is in operation from 8:30 to 6 o'clock every day, except for half an hour at noon, and Mrs. Schwaeble says that the number of calls averages one every three seconds.

There are three trunk lines from the University exchange to the town exchange so that three conversations between people on the campus and people in town can be carried on at one time.

All telephones on the campus except those at the dormitories are connected with the exchange.

Long distance as well as town calls are handled, as at any exchange.

The first rule of the exchange is that the president's call take precedence over all others.

Mrs. Schwaeble has much work to do besides that of telephone operation. Letters, parcel post matter, express packages, telegrams and all other communications for the faculty are received at the booth and distributed from it. It is the University information bureau. Mrs. Schwaeble keeps directories of faculty and students and a card index of rooms available for students. Through this index more than 100 students have found rooms. All telegrams and registered and special delivery mail is signed for by the operator. The University's lost and found department is also located in the booth.

"People expect me to know everything," said Mrs. Schwaeble. She sends few away disappointed.
